SUMMARY

Results-driven Senior Full Stack Developer with over 3 years of expertise in designing and implementing robust solutions across diverse domains. Successfully managed the complete software development lifecycle for both B2B and B2C software solutions. Adept at delivering high-quality software in dynamic and challenging environments, showcasing a comprehensive skill set and a consistent track record of excellence. Passionate about cybersecurity, I am seeking an opportunity to expand my knowledge in risk quantification, security assessment, penetration testing, vulnerability management, ethical hacking, and security program development. Armed with a strong interest in security tools such as Ghidra, IDA, Wireshark, and Scapy, I am dedicated to identifying and exploiting security vulnerabilities for accurate threat assessment. Eager to make a significant impact on security posture and software reliability, I bring extensive full-stack development experience, confidence in my ability to contribute to the security domain, and a commitment to continuous learning from experts in order to enhance my knowledge of security measures."
